

KARINA MARTINEZ

Comisión Económica para América Latina y el Caribe (CEPAL)

Chile

During the last 5 years, Karina Martinez has been working for ECLAC in the Division of Human Settlements and Sustainable Development, focusing on the implementation of climate change projects for the Latin American and the Caribbean region. Her previous jobs have been also related to the development and implementation of environmental projects, having working experience with international organizations such as the British Embassy in Mexico, UNEP-ROLAC and UNIDO Mexico. She has graduated from the Catholic University of Chile (Master in Environment and Human Settlements) and from the University of Essex, united Kingdom (Master in Environment, Science and Society).