

NÉSTOR Y. ROJAS

Universidad Nacional de Colombia
Colombia

Dr. Rojas is a Chemical Engineer (Universidad Nacional de Colombia, 1996) with a Ph.D. in Diesel Engines Emissions from the University of Leeds, United Kingdom. He held an Assistant Professor position at Universidad de Los Andes between 2002 and 2006 and he is currently an Associate Professor at the Department of Chemical and Environmental Engineering of Universidad Nacional de Colombia at Bogota. Dr. Rojas' research is focused on estimating and measuring air pollutant emissions, determining human exposure to particulate matter, chemically characterizing particulate matter to determine its source contribution and, currently, modeling air quality.
