Dr. Thomas P Seager is an Associate Professor in the School of Sustainable Engineering and the Built Environment at Arizona State University. He is the founding Director of the Sustainable Energy & Environmental Decision Sciences (SEEDS) studio. As Principal Investigator of the Nation Science Foundation grant "An Experiential Pedagogy for Sustainability Ethics," he co-created a game-based approach to teaching graduate engineering and science students about the ethical dimensions of salient sustainability problems such as the Tragedy of the Commons and intragenerational equity. Additionally Dr. Seager leads a research group that examines the environmental consequences of alternative energy technologies.
