

Alejandra Manzanares
Professional Advisor. Ministry of Health. Chile

She is a veterinarian graduated of the Universidad Austral de Chile. She received her Master degree in Environmental Management and Sustainable Development at Universidad de Valencia, Spain (2005). Miss. Manzanares is a chilean professional advisor for the Department of Environmental Health and Rapid Response Team. Ministry of Health.

She is currently a project technical advisor and assistant in research related with environmental impact, climate change, control of zoonoses and Vectors/ and food safety.

Before joining the national level, she worked in the regional level as inspector of health authority.