

ALEXANDRA OLIVO

Ministerio del Medio Ambiente de Ecuador Ecuador

Promotes sustainable initiatives actions from a multi an interdisciplinary approach with a local perspective.

Has worked in cualitative and cuantitative research methods applied in different targets as a plattform for strategic planning and communications.

Works as Climate Change Specialist in Ministry of Environment of Ecuador coordinating activities related to Health and Climate. She is part of the team that is working on developing the National Adaptation Plan focusing on as one of the sectors affected by Climate Change. (Health and Vulnerable Groups) and working closely with specialists in Agriculture, Water, Ecosystems, Risk Managment, Mitigation among other society actors.