

JANAINA PASQUAL

Itaipu Binacional

Brazil

Janaina Camile Pasqual has a Master degree in Multipurpose Technical Cadastre and Land Management, from Federal University of Santa Catarina - (UFSC), Brazil. Dissertation Title: Bioenergy and Carbon Credits Projects: a sustainable pilot project in Brazil in a Swine Production Property. She holds a B.S. in International Relations and a B.S. in Business Management from FAE Business School. She worked in the first farm that produced bioenergy from swine wastes in the State of Santa Catarina (Brazil). Nowadays she works at Itaipu Technological Park Foundation as consultant and manager of Graduation and Specialization Courses related to renewable energy and water and energy nexus.