

MARIA SILVIA MUYLEAERT DE ARAUJO
Federal University of Rio de Janeiro/UFRJ
Brazil

MARIA SILVIA MUYLEAERT DE ARAUJO, architect (Federal University of Rio de Janeiro/UFRJ), MSc in Urban and Regional Planning (IPPUR/UFRJ), with post graduation at the Institute for Housing and Urban Development Studies, Rotterdam, the Netherlands and DSc in Energy and Environmental Planning (PPE/COPPE/UFRJ). Member of the IPCC/Working Group III to the 5th Assessment Report (AR5) of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) as Lead Author for Chapter 4 on “Sustainable Development and Equity”. Assistant of the Rio de Janeiro State government Environment Secretary, since 2007. Member of the Brazilian Forum on Climate Change. Member of the Collaborative Program of the Ethical Dimensions of Climate Change coordinated by Rock Ethics Institute – Penn State University.