

VICTOR ARIEL AYALA ROJAS
Dirección de Meteorología e Hidrología
Paraguay

I work as technical staff in the Department of Hydrology, which are received hydrometric levels of the various ports on the Paraguay River and Parana, the received data is stored as part of the historical database, while a section of the website of the Directorate of Meteorology and Hydrology we issue a daily bulletin of the heights hydrometric ports, another monthly newsletter about the behavior that took the waters during the month and attention to the various users (riverine population, agriculture, livestock and others).

Also from the teaching staff of technicians Research Laboratory for Atmospheric and Environmental Problems (LIAPA) in the Faculty of Natural Sciences, National University of Asunción.